

Worldwide Advocacy for Gifted Individuals

The World Council for Gifted and Talented Children, Inc. (WCGTC) is a worldwide nonprofit organization that has provided advocacy and support for gifted children for more than 40 years. The WCGTC is a diverse organization networking the globe with an active membership of educators, scholars, researchers, parents, and others interested in the development and education of gifted and talented children of all ages.

The WCGTC consists of its Members, Executive Committee, Delegates from member countries, and a Headquarters that relocated to Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green, Kentucky in 2011.

Publications

World Gifted is the official bulletin of the World Council for Gifted and Talented Children. It contains the latest news and information concerning the organization, its membership, and the international gifted education community. It is published one - three times each year.

Gifted and Talented International (GTI) is the official journal of the World Council. Its purpose is to share current theory, research, and practice in gifted education with its audience of international educators, scholars, researchers, and parents. GTI is refereed by an editorial review board of leading international educators of the gifted. It is published twice a year.

World Conference

The WCGTC hosts a biennial World Conference at a major international city during late July or early August in odd-numbered years. World Conferences provide unique opportunities for individuals interested in developing gifted education and talent development to gather from around the globe to discuss the vital matters, issues, and concerns that impact the field of gifted education. The 24th World Conference will be held virtually during July 31 - August 1 and August 7 - 8, 2021.

Membership
